SECNAV INSTRUCTION 5430.94

From: Secretary of the Navy

Subj: ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW NAME AND MISSION STATEMENT FOR THE NAVAL UNDERSEA MUSEUM, KEYPORT, WASHINGTON

Ref: (a) SECNAVNOTE 5430 of 23 Jul 79 (Canc frp: Jan 80) (NOTAL)

1. Purpose. To establish the new name of the Naval Undersea Museum at Keyport, Washington and express its mission statement.
2. Background. Reference (a) established the Naval Museum of Undersea Warfare at Keyport, Washington as a component of the Naval Undersea Warfare Engineering Station, Keyport, Washington. Since that time changes have developed with regard to mission and general areas of interest. It is appropriate for the Museum to represent all undersea activities of the Navy.
3. Action. Effective this date the official name of the Naval Museum at Keyport, Washington will be the Naval Undersea Museum with a mission statement as follows:

To collect, preserve, catalog, display, and describe undersea phenomena, undersea naval weapons, sensors and platforms at the subsystem, equipment, and component level that are representative of the innovation, development, growth, and historic heritage of these weapons, sensors, and platforms in exploiting undersea phenomena.

James H. Webb, Jr.
Secretary of the Navy
